SUBJECT: Tax Technical Corrections Bill Update

STAT

STAT

1. On 29 September 1988, I spoke with Barry Wold, a staffer on the Joint Committee on Taxation. I told Mr. Wold that I had read that the Senate version of the tax technical corrections bill may lie dormant until January. He told me that it is still possible that the bill will be enacted before the end of the session. It is also possible that the technical corrections portion of the bill may be separated from the remainder in order to speed enactment of the former.

2. One factor involved is when Congress will conclude its session. Obviously, the longer it remains in session, the better the prospects for passage of the bill. The target date is 7 October, although it is possible (albeit unlikely) that the session could end on 4 October. It is more likely that the session will not end until 14 October. I will keep you informed of any new developments.
